Where the Wazuka photos were taken

Numbered pins are the areas where the photos in our gallery were taken. ★ = Wazuka no Sato Station.

Map: GSI Tiles (pale map), Geospatial Information Authority of Japan, edited

1. Koshigoe Pass (7 photos)
2. Ishitera (5 photos)
   → Ishitera Tea Fields
3. Shirasu (24 photos)
   → Shirasu & Erihara Tea Fields
4. Miroku Buddha (2 photos)
   → Miroku Magaibutsu
5. Erihara (2 photos)
   → Shirasu & Erihara Tea Fields
6. Wazuka Sports Park (5 photos)
   → Ikujigaoka Park
7. Nagai (1 photo)
   → Seseragi Path
8. Tomb of Prince Asaka (1 photo)
   → Tomb of Prince Asaka
9. Bessho (1 photo)
10. Kamatsuka (2 photos)
    → Kamatsuka Tea Fields
11. Naka (1 photo)
12. Yubune (3 photos)

★ Wazuka no Sato Station (wazukanoSATO Cafe & farm shop)
35 Ohazama, Shirasu, Wazuka-cho, Soraku-gun, Kyoto 619-1222, JAPAN
TEL +81 774-39-7790 (From within Japan: 0774-39-7790)
Weekdays 10:00–15:00 / Sat, Sun & public holidays 10:00–16:00
Closed Mon & Tue (Tue & Wed when Monday is a public holiday; Mon & Wed when Tuesday is a public holiday)

The tea fields are private land. Please stay on the roads and paths, do not go close to people at work, and do not touch the tea or the tools.

Photos, drone footage and music: https://wazukanosato.com/en/gallery.html

Issued 2026-10-04 · Hours and closing days may change — please check by phone before visiting.